Randall Again Winner In Farm Exhibit

STEWART AND FULTON LEAD MASTER DAIRYMEN

Second Time For Randall Man To Win First Place

At the banquet held at the Herring Hotel, Amarillo, Wednesday noon, marking the close of the fourth and final Master Dairy Farmers Contest of the Amarillo News-Globe, a Randall county dairy farmer was crowned as Dairy King of the Panhandle. This Master Dairyman, C. C. Stewart of the Zita community is the second Randall county man to be so honored with first awards since the contest began several years ago.

Closely following Mr. Stewart was H. R. Fulton also of Randall county, who was awarded second place in the contest. This was the third year Fulton has been entered in the contest and he has finished in the high money every time. For the two years previous he has won third honors. These two men were the only Randall county contestants this year.

Since the inauguration of the contest four years ago Randall county has furnished two of the four Master Dairymen of the Panhandle. At the 1930 banquet J. W. Watson was named as a Master Dairyman. Each year 9 winners in addition to the first place men are announced. In the four years of the contest Randall county has been the home of eight out of the 40 Master Dairy Farmers.

Mr. Stewart advanced from fifth place of last year to the position of first this time.

The banquet Wednesday was a joint affair also honoring the winners in the First Annual Pork Production contest. First prize in this contest went to J. T. McDaniel, a 16-year-old 4-H club boy of Kress, Swisher county. There were no contestants from this county. The banquet was a courtesy of the Amarillo Chamber of Commerce.

Before the close of the meeting a new contestant, substituting the two just ended was announced. This, it was stated, will be conducted on a plan covering a larger scope to name a Master Farmer of the Panhandle.

Prof. T. M. Clark To Do Private Tutoring Here

Prof. T. M. Clark returned Saturday from Portland, Texas, where he has spent the summer and during the coming year will be at home at the Mrs. B. A. Stafford house, 1911 Fifth Avenue.

College students will be glad to know that Mr. Clark has returned for he will do a limited amount of tutoring and students who have difficulties with English, modern languages or history will find his services valuable, in supplying any deficiencies in their early training in these subjects.

Mr. Clark will also give individual instruction to those who wish to take college entrance examinations and to high school students who are having trouble with any of their work.

Many years of experience in both individual and class room instruction and a sympathetic and understanding attitude toward young people, admirably fit Mr. Clark for this type of work, and his services will fill a need which has existed in Canyon for a long time.

Robbins Home Destroyed By Fire Sunday

Fire of unknown origin almost completely destroyed the residence of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Robbins, 2300 Third Avenue, about 5 o'clock Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Robbins were the only occupants of the house at the time of the fire and express themselves at a loss to determine the origin of the blaze. The conflagration had gained considerable headway before Mr. Robbins was aroused at 5 o'clock to turn in the alarm.

Some furniture and clothing were saved. The property was partially covered by insurance.

The house was originally the home of Dr. and Mrs. H. W. Morelock of the college, with the Robbins family purchasing it several years ago.

Over 200 are Enrolled First Day at College

With approximately 200 Freshmen enrolled on the first day, everything pointed to an average enrollment for the fall term at the West Texas State Teachers College. According to the opening schedule, only Freshmen were on hand for the first day's activities, with all others beginning enrollment today.

W. T. Faculty Has Salaryless Member

The West Texas State Teachers College has a visiting faculty member. She receives no salary, her name does not appear on the faculty list, and she has offered to work in any capacity in which President Hill may be able to use her. She is Miss Rosalie Leslie of Breckenridge.

Miss Leslie is a graduate of the University of Texas, and has her Master's degree from Columbia University, New York. She has majored in history and has selected her elective subjects in order to fit herself to be a dean of women.

But Rosalie Leslie is young, too young, say college executives, to carry the responsibility of a dean of women until she has had more experience.

After considering several colleges in Texas, Miss Leslie decided that the West Texas State Teachers College was the one in which she would like to spend a year getting experience and learning the different phases of the work of a dean of women. So the arrangement was made.

Living at Randall Hall, a girl's dormitory, she pays board and room exactly as other occupants, and enters into the life of the college girls. Later in the year she expects to live at Cousins Hall. Probably the girls will enjoy her very much for she is an experienced camp counsellor and is said to be an A-One outdoor girl.

She will assist Mrs. Geraldine Green, the Dean of Women, and do other work at the college.

Gladys Williams Is New Teacher

Miss Gladys Williams, of Denton, has been employed by President J. A. Hill to take the position of first grade critic teacher left vacant by the resignation of Miss Elva Fronabarger.

Miss Williams is a graduate of the University of Chicago and has her Master's Degree from Teachers College, Columbia University. She has had eight years experience and is a specialist in the field of kindergarten and primary education. She has not yet arrived in Canyon but is expected today.

Mrs. Max O'Brien (Ernestine Williams), '29, of Amarillo, visited the campus Sept. 21. Her brother, Judge, has entered college here, and will drive back and forth.

STOCKHOLDERS OF A C P MEET IN AMARILLO

Protective League Formed To Fight For Return of Funds

OFFICERS ELECTED

Judge Kelso Praised By Gene Howe In His Talk On Conditions.

Stockholders of the American Power Corporation at a meeting held at Amarillo at the Herring Hotel Tuesday afternoon gave notice to the utility corporation which owns the Texas Utilities Company in Canyon and other subsidiaries in this territory that they want their money back or they will make it their business to drive the utilitiy companies from cities and communities they are now serving in this area. Much of the $1,500,000.00 worth of stock of the American Commonwealth Power Corporation, which is now afloat, is owned by citizens of the Panhandle and Eastern New Mexico, who were represented at the meeting Tuesday. Approximately 300 citizens were in attendance.

Organization Formed.

An organization to be known as the Protective League, was formed for the purpose of fighting against the company for a return of funds which they charge were collected through the misrepresentation that it was an investment in the local subsidiaries of the American Commonwealth Power Corporation. Public opinion is to be their major weapon, according to the plans made.

The following officers were elected to direct the fight of the Protective League against the American Commonwealth Power Corporation: Gene Howe, president; Arthur Duggan of Littlefield, vice-president; Clyde W. Warwick of Canyon, secretary; and Miss Marguerite Howell of Amarillo, assistant secretary.

The three officers, with George

Gatecrashers Are Warned By Sheriff

Gatecrashers beware!

The day of successfully crashing gates at the Buffalo football games has ended, says Sheriff John Fry, who announces that he intends to place several special officers at Buffalo stadium during the coming season to take care of those who attempt to see the games "free, gratis, for nothin'."

President J. A. Hill says that for some time the College has been having trouble with trespassers at the athletic games. "There seem to be several people," he said, "who insist on seeing the games without cost and therefore use any means to get into the grounds without paying anything. They have gone so far as to abuse the gate keepers and other officials."

Buffaloes Eager To Meet Cowboys Tomorrow Night

The Buffaloes are raring to stampede over the Simmons Cowboys Friday night and show them the best brand of football in the Panhandle, according to announcements made by Coach S. D. Burton.

"The Buffaloes are in excellent condition," said Coach Burton, "taking into consideration the length of the training season and the fact that this is the first game of the year. We plan to show a brand of football Friday that will be too much for our visitors."

The probable lineup for the Buffaloes as given out by the coach is as follows:

McClendon (captain), center.
Duncan and Lovelace, guards.
Manning and Higgins, tackles.
Fortenberry and Stowe, ends.
Burk, quarterback.
Williams, fullback.
Spence and Phillips, half backs.

The game will start promptly at 8 o'clock under the floodlights of the Buffalo stadium. Admission will be 75 cents, according to announcements made by the authorities.

Miss Julia Belle Moses of Ralls visited over the week end with her sister, Mrs. Jack Murphy.

Good and Bad In Canyon Told at Rotary Club

A very interesting and valuable program for the Rotarians was given last Tuesday by the Resolutions committee with Joe Hill as chairman. All Rotarians and all visitors were asked to list what, in their opinion was "right in Canyon" and what was "wrong in Canyon." A very constructive discussion followed. Some of the points brought out by the members follow:

What's right:

1. Good educational advantages and influences.
2. Good religious influence.
3. Citizenship above average.
4. Progressive business houses.
5. Good transportation facilities.
6. Manifestation of civic pride.
7. Healthful place to live.
8. Good utilities.
9. Progressive city government.
10. Good fire department.

What's wrong:

1. A lack of cooperation among all elements.
2. A lack of "trade at home spirit" among the people.
3. A lack of law enforcement.
4. Too few people.
5. Too few public spirited men.
6. Too many weeds on vacant lots.
7. Religious indifference.
8. High water rate.
9. Too much selfishness.
1. Indifference to trade territory.

Tax Bill Means Reduction In Local Tax Rate

According to the Randall County budget for the coming year, the passage of the tax bill by the state legislature assuming payment of interest and sinking fund on outstanding road bonds for 1932, will save Randall County in the neighborhood of $20,000 for the coming year.

This saving will allow the Commissioners' Court to make a reduction of between 30 and 40 cents on the county tax rate, reducing it, in all probability, from $1.15 to 85 cents, stated court house officials this week.

This reduction, which will mean a large saving to the taxpayers, is eagerly welcomed throughout the county.

Optimistic Note Struck At Texas Utilities Meet

An optimistic note was struck at the meeting of employees and executives of the Texas Utilities Company held at Plainview Tuesday afternoon, said A. H. Bryant, manager of the local office, who attended the meeting. Terry Mayben and Carl Brown also attended from Canyon.

Dave Belden, president of the Community Power and Light Company, gave the principal address of the afternoon. Mr. Belden stated that reports of the company operating over Arkansas, Texas, Oklahoma and Kansas showed a decided upturn in business during the month of August and that figures indicated conclusively "that the elusive corner for which we have been looking has been passed sometime in the past month."

All reports given at the meeting were very encouraging in every respect, said Mr. Bryant.

HAS TONSIL OPERATION.

Miss Frances Usery underwent a tonsil operation in Amarillo last Friday. She is recovering rapidly and expects to be up in a few days.

R. W. Ratcliff spent a few days the past week at his home here. He has been working in Clarendon and Pampa for several weeks.

W. H. UPCHURCH FOR FIFTH TIME PLACES THE COUNTY AT THE TOP OF THE LIST

Best Exhibitor

W. H. UPCHURCH

County Agent W. H. Upchurch who prepared the Randall County exhibit which won, for the fifth consecutive time, the blue ribbon at the Tri-State Fair in Amarillo.

Mr. Upchurch aided in judging the vocational exhibits of the Future Farmers of America at the Amarillo exposition and has been chosen one of the judges in the agricultural department of the Panhandle-South Plains Fair to be held at Lubbock the last of this month.

Scoring 937 points out of a possible 1,000, Randall County stepped forward for the fifth consecutive time to carry off the blue ribbon in the agricultural exhibit at the Tri-State Fair in Amarillo this week.

The winning exhibit was prepared by County Agent W. H. Upchurch whose fame as a winning exhibitor has spread far and wide. His ability as an exhibitor, coupled with Randall County's fertile lands and industrious farmers, has formed a combination that has become well nigh unbeatable in recent years, and despite the fact that this past year has been an unusually dry one, and the crops extremely short for this county, Mr. Upchurch again put Randall County on the map and justified the slogan, "The Banner Agricultural County of the Panhandle."

Wheeler County, fifth place winner last year, jumped to second place this year with a score of 930.5. Hemphill took third with 927.6 points; Hartley came next with 925.5 and Quay County, N. M. fifth with 905.1. Exhibits were judged by D. L. Jones of the Lubbock experimental station; R. E. Dickson of the Spur station and J. B. Wallace of the Plainview grain exchange.

Winning blue ribbons is no new experience for Mr. Upchurch as this is the seventh time he has carried off high honors in the agricultural exhibits, winning two first places for Hartley County before he came here.

The major products in the Randall County exhibit were: wheat, grain sorghums, and alfalfa.

Among the minor crops shown were: pumpkins; pinto, butter and snap beans; blackeyed, cream and polecat peas; rye bundles; barley; peanuts; onions; cashaws; winter squash; watermelon; Bell peppers; tomatoes; Johnson, sudan and gramma grass and peanut hay.

The winning exhibit will be carried to Dallas for exhibit and competition at the State Fair of Texas, where Randall County won first place in 1930, and lost by eight-tenths of a point in 1931. The fair will open there October 8th. Both Mr. and Mrs. Upchurch will attend as Mrs. Upchurch assists her husband in selecting and arranging the exhibits.

Those in the county who may have anything which they believe will add to the exhibit and improve it are requested to get in touch with the county agent within the next few days.

Following are tabulated the ranking scores of the 19 counties of the Panhandle and New Mexico, which placed county agricultural exhibits on display at the Amarillo Tri-State Fair:

Randall, 937; Wheeler, 930.5; Hemphill, 927.6; Hartley, 925.5; Quay, N. M., 905.1; Deaf Smith, 901.3; Ochiltree, 900.5; Roberts, 897; Collingsworth, 888.5; Hansford, 887.6; Harding, N. M., 885.8; Donley, 881.6; Gray, 879.6; Lipscomb, 878.6; Jones 871.5; Sherman, 867.5; Armstrong 859.6; Bailey, 844.3; Parmer, 778.8.

FIRST HONORS FOR FIFTH TIME

This is the Randall County agricultural exhibit that won first place honors at the Tri-State Fair, in progress here this week. The exhibit was prepared by W. H. Upchurch, county agent, whose Randall County exhibits have won first place for the last five consecutive years.

Two-Day Institute to Be Held in Oct.

A two-day Institute of Business will be presented in Canyon, beginning October 13, under the direction of Henry W. Stanley, nationally known authority on economics and business administration, according to an announcement issued by the Chamber of Commerce.

This business course which is being offered without charge to the local merchants and salespeople, is a new service being given by the Trade Extension Division of the Dallas Chamber of Commerce. Through this unusual opportunity to study modern business methods, a new chapter in trade development of the Southwest is being written.

Every man and woman in the business world having a selling or advertising problem will be interested in this series of lectures and will obtain valuable information on business administration and salesmanship. Mr. Stanley will deliver two lectures each night on subjects of salesmanship, merchandising and public contact.

Every morning during the Institute, a special class on advertising will be held to which everyone in the city interested in this subject is invited.

Every afternoon Mr. Stanley will conduct a special class having to do with window display and interior store arrangement.

The remainder of each day will be spent by Mr. Stanley in visiting local merchants and business men where individual store problems will be discussed and analyzed.

For the last six years Mr. Stan-

PANHANDLE MEMBER 1932 PRESS ASSOCIATION

THE GOVERNOR LOSES.

By Clyde W. Warwick
Representative, 123rd District.

The "lame duck" session continues merrily on its way.

The Governor politely handed Legislators their hats Saturday but the 150 solons in the House rudely hung them on the peg and decided to remain as the guests of the taxpayers for an indefinite period of time. I say indefinite because the House changed a second sine die adjournment from Monday to Wednesday which was not affirmed by the Senate when this was written.

In this instance the Senate made a mistake. The House had previously voted to adjourn on Friday. The Senate changed the date to Saturday and returned the resolution to the House. It was then that a majority refused to concur and to remain in session. Had it not been for the message received by the Governor, a short time before the vote was taken, it is very likely that adjournment would have been taken. In this instance a message from the Governor at the wrong time is costing the taxpayers $4,000.00 per day.

However, be it understood that many members of the House were very much opposed to adjournment and were perfectly willing to eat at the expense of the taxpayers for a full thirty days session. This is said in no unkindness but as a matter of fact and the record and statements made by the various members who voted to continue in session.

The bill to relieve the counties of their road bond tax burden and transfer it to the burden of the State to be paid out of the gasoline tax is a real service to all of the counties of the state which have outstanding road bonds and will relieve these counties of a very large burden for the coming years. Senator Clint Small is one of the co-authors of the bill which finally becomes a law. Here, as in many other instances Senator Small has played a very prominent part in directing the affairs of the Legislature and in writing the bills finally become the law of the state.

However, the Senator from West Texas received a good whipping at the hands of Mrs. Sarah Hughes, Representative of Dallas who was the only woman who survived this year's primaries. The other three women members of the House were defeated. A series of three West Texas land bills were passed in the Senate but, lead by Mrs. Hughes, the House was not so favorable to West Texas. It was another case in which East Texas has shown a hostile attitude towards West Texas.

Another measure under the guise of tax relief comes with the remission of penalty and interest on delinquent taxes. The Legislature made a bad start last year in remitting penalties and taxes on delinquent taxes and set a precedent which will be hard to live down in the future. In other words, the man who pays his taxes is being penalized at the prevailing rate of interest in favor of the man who refuses to pay his taxes at specified intervals. Of course, there are thousands of unfortunate people who are unable to pay their taxes on time, but at the same time it looks unjust that the machinery of the state government should approve of any system which would penalize the man who pays his honest debt and is doing his part towards the support of the state government and of the state's interests. There will always be unfortunate people who can not pay their taxes on time, but it is like-wise true that there are thousands of professional tax dodgers who will be encouraged in the future in refusing to pay their taxes on time.

A bill pending on Saturday and which really caused the House to refuse to adjourn is the county salary reduction bill. This bill is very largely a spite bill sponsored by "lame ducks" who were hoping to get even with their political enemies. It will save the taxpayers of the state millions of dollars in county salaries should the bill finally be enacted before adjournment. At this time we refuse to even guess when adjournment will come.

The tactics of the Ferguson group is being carefully watched. It is rumored that Ferguson's friends will succeed in calling a special session of the new Legislature which will be elected November 8th, and which will be controlled by Ferguson, for the purpose of impeaching Governor Sterling. Whether this action is being seriously considered or whether it is merely a threat on the part of the Ferguson crowd to intimidate the Governor in his election contest is yet to be determined. Ferguson leaders in the House stated very frankly that it was their wish to hold the Legislature in session during this week as many things were liable to happen during this week in which the Legislature would be vitally interested.

A NEW GROUP OF SUCKERS.

The grafters of America are planning to bleed a new group of suckers. The old group was bled white by the old schemes of stock promotion and bond sales and every imaginable scheme that the inventive genius of the grafters could devise.

New schemes must be devised as the people of America are fed up on the old plans.

In Canyon our citizens have suffered losses of thousands of dollars taken from their earnings by stock promoters who were selling blue sky schemes pure and simple. Most of this money came from the pockets of those who could not afford to lose their life savings.

In many instances these savings represented the entire estate of unfortunate widows who were sold worthless stock with some fanciful tale of great returns. Some were induced to sell liberty bonds which return small interest with a promise of large gains if they would only invest in these stocks.

A local institution, the Texas Utilities Company, was used by stock grafters and Wall Street bankers to fleece our citizens.

A fanciful promotion scheme in Texas cities was another scheme used to fleece others who did not take time to investigate.

Be it said for Judge Kelso and district and local officials of the Texas Utilities Company, that they knew nothing about the scheme on foot to fleece the people of this section. The employees of the company were sent out as agents. They themselves bought the worthless stock and many invested their life's earnings. It is a shame and disgrace that a good company like the Texas Utilities should fall into the hands of brokers who were bent upon fleecing the public which the company serves. The day of reckoning is at hand. These same bankers must restore to the purchasers of this worthless stock or the business of this company will be wrecked.

This is a story of the past and something must be done for the future. The schemers are at work and will bring forth a new group of worthless stocks which they will seek to peddle.

The district representative of a large Insurance Company gave the writer a sure cure for these promotional schemes. We hope the citizens of Randall County will use it.

There is hardly a citizen who does not have insurance policies in one of the old line standard insurance companies. These companies invest millions of dollars in various kinds of securities. These securities must be safe or the policy holders will sometime in the future suffer. The law imposes severe penalties in the insurance companies should they invest in worthless securities.

In order to carefully scrutinize these securities, experts are employed to pass upon the various bonds and stocks which are being offered for sale. Any of the old line companies will cheerfull pass on to their policy holders the result of their investigations.

The District Manager proposed the following scheme:

The next time the stock promotor waits upon any citizen, tell him very frankly that you are going to submit his proposition to the officials of the Life Insurance Company whose policy you hold. Tell him to write out in full his plan.

Tell him that you are not interested unless your Insurance Company will approve his scheme.

In 999 cases out of 1000, you will never see or hear tell of the salesman again. He will not submit his proposition unless it will stand up under close scrutiny.

If his scheme is worth something it would not be necessary for his company to be sending agents out over the country selling the stock or bonds as there is aways money available in the big financial centers to handle all such stock issues.

Just when this period of depression will pass no one knows but when it does end you will see the country flooded with all kinds of schemes for the purpose of fleecing the people.

If citizens will use the above plan they will save thousands and thousands of dollars.

ALOOF UNCLE SAM.

We are hearing plenty about European agreements. First there was the agreement that unless a general debt settlement can be arranged, including the debts due to America, the Lausanne arrangement would stand unratified. It is now clear that the United States was not officially a party of this deal; so says Washington, so says Ramsey MacDonald. It was simply a 'general understanding." But Chancelor von Papen says he had no such understanding. So far as he is concerned, Germany will pay no more reparations, except the $712,000,000 provided by a bond issue three years hence. If the international debts are not settled in a satisfactory manner, and the Lausanne convention falls, then, says Mr. MacDonald, there will be another conference. At which Chancellor von Papen merely smiles. He refuses to look upon that eventuality as a matter which concerns Germany.

Now come M. Herriot and Sir John Simon in the role of foreign ministers of their respective countries, and announce an Anglo-French agreement for close consultation on everything that may arise. Does that concern the debts due to America? "Yes," says M. Herriot. "No," says Sir John, "and if the French think it does, then they are going to find out differently." Whom to believe?

At any rate, it doesn't concern us. It is a matter for M. Herriot and Sir John Simon to thresh out between themselves. We have laid it down that if the debt settlements between European nations and the United States are to be questioned, we shall deal with each nation separately, since each made a separate agreement. France and England can discuss or refuse to discuss with one another their contemplated moves; it makes no difference to the U. S. A. All these socalled agreements concern Europe exclusively.

"Say, Bill, if you had five bucks in your pocket, what would you think?"

"I'd think I had on somebody else's pants."

Proves Antidote for Cyanide

Believed to be the only man who has ever swallowed a deadly dose of cyanide and recovered, Cuthbert Rieveley, 30, of San Francisco, is shown above in a respirator machine after Dr J E Geiger, right, had injected an antidote—common methylene blue—into his veins. When Rieveley, a former student of Dr Geiger's, had been jobless for months, he became depressed and took cyanide. Dr Geiger had experimented with guinea pigs for 10 years, and knew that methylene blue would cure them. But would it work with a human? He injected the antidote; a short time later Rieveley became conscious and, within a few hours, was pronounced out of danger.

THE GREAT AMERICAN HOME

ONE MINUTE SERMON.

He that loveth silver shall not be satisfied with silver; nor he that loveth abundance with increase: this is also vanity.—Ecclesiastes, v. 20.

One of the hardest things to remember is to forget.

Mother used to lock the cupboard to keep the children out of the jam. Now she she locks the garage door and lets the jam take care of itself.

Convicted criminals have a great fondness for trials. They are always asking for more of them.

The leech, a news item states, is no longer an adjunct to the French medical profession. Looks like it has transferred its activities to the American political profession.

If the government keeps appropriating, what this country will need will be a good five-cent piece.

Miss Maxine McKinney Becomes Bride of Mr. Gordon McCarty

Of interest to citizens of the entire Panhandle was the marriage Tuesday morning of Miss Maxine McKinney of Pampa to Mr. Gordon McCarty of Canyon which was solemnized at 8:30 o'clock in the First Methodist Church of this city, with the Rev. C. E. Jameson, pastor, officiating. The couple were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Will McCarty. Only relatives and intimate friends were witnesses.

The bride chose as her wedding dress a becoming light woolen suit of dark brown with accessories to harmonize. She carried a bouquet of sunburst roses.

Mrs. McCarty is the daughter of Mrs. Birdie McKinney of Pampa, one of the pioneer residents of the Panhandle who is well known in this part of the state. She is a graduate of Pampa High School and did her freshman work in college at the College of Industrial Arts, Denton. For the past two years she has been a student in the West Texas State Teachers College at Canyon, working toward a degree in Art.

Mr. McCarty is the son of Mrs. Annie V. McCarty who has been a resident of Canyon since 1920. He has a bachelor of arts degree from the West Texas State Teachers College and a master's degree from the University of Montana. He has also done work at the University of Texas. While in school here he was a member of the Redman society and the Intercollegiate Debate team. Since 1930 he has been in the dry goods business with his brother here.

The couple left immediately following the ceremony for a honeymoon trip to southern Texas. They will be at home after October 1st in Canyon.

JOHNSON CLUB MEETS WITH MRS. LINDSEY

The Johnson H. D. club met Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Lindsey at the C. R. Strong place. Miss Bass gave an interesting demonstration on cookie making.

At the conclusion of the meeting the demonstration cookies were served to 17 members and one visitor. Two new members were admitted to the club.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. T. O. Hayes at which time the members will discuss sandwich making. All who are interested in the preparation of lunches are invited to come and bring sandwich recipes. Visitors are welcome.

DISTRICT H. D. AGENT MEETS WITH CLUB WOMEN

Miss Minnie Mae Grubbs of College Station, district home demonstration agent, was in Canyon Monday and Tuesday of this week conferring with Miss Bass concerning the work to be carried out during the coming months.

While here Miss Grubbs also met with the year book committee and made plans for the home demonstration year book to be published by the local clubs.

Miss Mattie Mae Swisher attended to business in Hereford Friday and Saturday.

WEST SIDE H. D. CLUB MEETS WITH MRS. WINN

The West Side Home Demonstration club met on Wednesday, September 14, at the beautiful country home of Mrs. W. D. Winn with the president, Mrs. A. N. Burgan, presiding.

After the roll call by the secretary, a report from different committees was heard. The subject for discussion was sandwiches, especially those using meats and meat substitutes, and many recipes were exchanged.

A social hour followed the regular business meeting during which piano music by Miss Mildred Baber and Mr. Winn was enjoyed by the fifteen members and three visiting guests who were present.

All ladies of the community who are interested in demonstration work are invited to meet with Mrs. T. A. Dowlen on Wednesday, September 28, at which time Miss Bass will be present and will demonstrate making cookies and packing school lunches.

MISSION CLASS STUDIES FOREIGN MEDICAL WORK

The Mission Study class of the Presbyterian church met on Monday afternoon for a lesson on Medical Mission Work in Foreign Fields. It was ably led by Mrs. Bills. During the lesson it was pointed out that much good is done by the wives of the missionaries teaching the women of foreign countries the principles of sanitation and the care of children. It was stated that a class of 1200 women attended one meeting for instruction along such lines.

The men in foreign fields have had a chance for more education than the women in past years, but at present the missionaries are striving to elevate the minds and ideals of the women, for it was quoted "No nation can rise above the quality of its womanhood, either in civilized or uncivilized countries."

FLOSSIE FORTNER AND ED MONEY ARE MARRIED

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Fortner of Happy announce this week the marriage of their daughter, Flossie, to Mr. Ed Money of Umbarger. The ceremony was performed Monday, September 12, at Clayton, New Mexico, with Judge Thomas Savage, officiating.

The bride chose as her wedding dress an attractive blue crepe frock with accessories to harmonize. She has lived at Happy for the past two years, coming there with her parents from Crowell, Texas.

Mr. Money is the son of Mrs. Elsie Money, well known ranchwoman of the Panhandle with land holdings west of Canyon. He received his education in the Canyon schools and at Brantley-Draughon Business College, Abilene. For the past few years he has been associated with his mother in the ranching business.

The young couple will make their home near Umbarger.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Roy Moses and family made a vacation trip to Ralls and Cisco last week.

MRS. MARION BISHIR ENTERTAINS FRIDAY

Mrs. Marion Bishir entertained the members of the Friday Afternoon club last week with an unusually attractive party at her home, 1715 Sixth Avenue, at which she honored Mrs. R. L. Lester and children, Rector, Jr. and Jane of Harlingen, who are here visiting in the parental L. T. Lester home.

Autumn flowers, late roses and dahlias predominating, were arranged in baskets about the rooms. Bridge was the chosen diversion and a color cheme of pink and white was carried out in the decorations, the table appointments and the refreshment course.

At the refreshment hour, young Miss Peggy Bishir was hostess to a number of her young friends, honoring Rector and Jane Lester.

The list of invited guests included: Mrs. Lester, honoree; Mrs. W. C. Black, Mrs. Ray Campbell, Mrs. O. N. Gamble, Mrs. Guy Harp, Mrs. Travis Shaw, Mrs. R. A. Neblett, Mrs. C. L. Thompson, Mrs. Clyde Warwick, Mrs. J. W. Kleinschmidt, Mrs. T. H. Knighton, Mrs. Dan Sanders, Mrs. D. M. Stewart, Mrs. John S. Humphreys, Mrs. R. A. Terrell, Mrs. Sue Donald, Mrs. Irby Carruth, and Mrs. L. T. Lester.

Youngsters were: Rector, Jr. and Jane Lester, guests of honor; Mary Carolyn, Billie Bob and Bradford Black, Martha Frances and Dorothy Jane Campbell, Ruth Gamble, James Thomas and Frances Alice Harp, Clarence Eugene and Thomas Harold Thompson, Tom and Bill Knighton, Jean Kleinschmidt, Ellen Sanders, Betty Ross Donald and Christine Jarrett.

WORTHWHILE CLUB MEETS WITH PRESIDENT

Members of the Worthwhile club were entertained Friday afternoon at the home of their president, Mrs. W. T. Davis with Mrs. Davis as hostess.

Roll call was answered with riddles, after which Mrs. O. F. Thomas gave a very interesting talk on "How to Make Use of Outworn Knit Garments."

Autumn flowers were decorative notes about the rooms where the guests were assembled. A delicious refreshment course was served at the tea hour.

Those present included: Mesdames Johnson, Campbell, Scowen, Hendrix, Olson, Samuelson, Caldwell, Smith, Thomas and Davis.

Mrs. W. G. Rose has had as her guests recently her mother, Mrs. J. A. O'Bryan and sisters, Miss Edna O'Bryan of Ames, Iowa, and another sister, Mrs. Harry Kelly of Warrensburg, Missouri.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Bradshaw and children left Monday for their home in Fort Worth after spending a week with Mrs. Bradshaw's sister, Mrs. Jack Murphy.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McKee had as their week-end guest, Mrs. McKee's cousin, Miss Roxie Hoskinson, who is teaching at Plemons this year.

Mrs. O. M. Cluck, Miss Edith Miller, Florine and Jean Walker of Hereford spent the week-end with Mrs. Jack Boutwell and Mrs. B. B. Cluck.

Twin-Motored Baby Carriage

"Well, so long! We're off," cry John and Jeanette Curry, as they start off on the mountain trails near Camp Baldy, Calif., with their sure-footed friend and conveyance. Mrs. Foster Curry, mother of the twins, finds this method of transporting her youngsters much easier than wheeling a perambulator, and there is little danger to the tots for the burro seems to know the value of his human cargo.

CANNING HINTS

Editor's Note—These recipes for canning are given by Miss Sadie Kate Bass, home demonstration agent for Randall county, and are especially seasonable for use at this time of the year. It is suggested that they be clipped and placed in your recipe cabinet for reference now and in the future.)

TOMATO KETCHUP

Select red-ripe tomatoes. The extra juice, and small and broken fruit which will not do for canning, if the tomatoes are sound red. Any green or yellowish parts of fruit will make a ketchup inferior in flavor and color. Tie whole spices loosely in a bag while cooking, and remove before bottling to prevent darkening the color of the ketchup. The pulp of sweet Spanish pepper or the ground Hungarian paprika may be used to give color and flavor. Remove seeds from sweet red pepper, chop, and add one cupful of this pepper and 2 medium-sized onions to one gallon of tomatoes before cooking. The tomato pulp may be made either by the hot process, that is, heating and pressing through a sieve tomatoes which have been peeled and prepared for cooking, or by running the fresh fruit thru a colander or tomato pulper. It is well to add the onions and the chopped sweet red peppers at the time the tomatoes are first cooked so that any coarse tissues will be removed by the screening or straining process.

For every gallon of pulp use the following:

2 tablespoonfuls of salt.
4 tablespoonfuls of sugar.
1 tablespoonful of mustard (powdered).
1 pint of good cider vinegar.
½ level tablespoonful each of whole allspice and cloves.
1 level tablespoonful each of whole cinnamon and pepper.
2 small red peppers, sliced and seeds removed.

After putting tomatoes through colander, add ground spices and spice bag, and cook for 1½ hours, or until nearly thick enough. Cooking should continue until the original quantity is reduced in bulk to about one-half. Then add vinegar and cook until thick. Rapid cooking (being careful not to scorch the ketchup) will give a better color than slow cooking. The finished product should have a fine, bright red color and smooth consistency.

Pour the ketchup at once into hot bottles that have boiled. If any quantity is made, set the hot bottles at once into a vessel of hot water, having a rack or false bottom in it to prevent breakage, put the cork or stopper in loosely, and process at 180 degrees F. for thirty minutes. Drive the cork in tightly and when cool dip mouth of bottle into melted paraffin, or cover stopper with sealing wax. A good finished product will stand in a bottle without the separation of free juice. The use of a large amount of vinegar tends to prevent spoilage.

Mr. and Mrs. Lige Frieze visited over the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Ed Pilley at Floydada. They were accompanied as far as Lockney by Miss Velma Thomas who visited friends there.

Miss Hazel Cooper has been visiting in the home of her sister, Mrs. Otha Cannedy at Panhandle for the past week.

Scenes at Portland Convention of American Legion

Demonstration Clubs Win Nine Places at The Tri-State Fair Exposition

Notwithstanding the fact that this is the first season for demonstration clubs in Randall County, a number of the local organizations entered exhibits in the Home Demonstration division of the Tri-State Fair being held in Amarillo this week and walked away with nine of the prizes.

Centerview Club led with four places, three first and one third place.

Ribbons won were as follows:

Mrs. Ed Kuehn, Centerview, 1st, vegetable pickles.

Mrs. R. F. Washburn, Centerview, 1st, red pepper hash; 1st, other relish; and 3rd, tomato mince meat.

Mrs. C. Wagner, Parks, 3rd, vegetable pickles.

Mrs. L. T. Campbell, Lakeside, 1st, watermelon preserves.

Mrs. F. S. Fegel, Lakeside, 3rd, red pepper hash.

Mrs. M. E. Rhoads, Tierra Blanca, 3rd, other relish.

Mrs. D. C. McCormick, Zita, 3rd, grape jelly.

Other county clubs entering products were: Jackson, Jowell, Sunny Hill and West Side.

"The clubs entered this year," said Miss Bass, local demonstration agent, "more for the experience than in the hope of winning any of the awards, so we are more than pleased with the excellent results and the nine prizes we are bringing back to our home county. The club women are planning to enter many more articles next season and with the experience we have gained this year, we hope to have an even better exhibit."

Several representatives from the local organizations attended the judging to bring back the criticism given there to the various club units in the county.

Know Where to Wear What You Buy

IN MAKING YOUR HAT AND SHOE PURCHASES THIS SEASON, BE SURE THEY COMPLETE AN ENSEMBLE FOR YOU

BY HARRIET

THERE is such a thing as having too many clothes. Every frock and every hat in your wardrobe should have some definite reason for being there. It is much wiser, when you purchase, to consider just where you are going to wear what you are buying.

A frock may be ever so lovely, but if you never go to tea dances, and it won't be at home any other place, it may soothe your spirit to know you own it, but it won't get you any invitations anywhere. The same thing applies to hats. If they don't complete an ensemble they can't do anything for you, however willing they may be.

And hats and shoes certainly have a co-operative spirit this year.

• • •

SAILORS have been coming to the front, in the parade of the hats. The new woolen frocks of crinkled crepes, which are tailored in a manner that is more alluringly feminine than tailored clothes usually know, how to be, demanded a hat that suited its mood. So sailors have come back.

They perch at reckless angles. They have a flair for audacity.

In fact, hats must be cocky to be in style this season. No hat rests demurely on anybody's head. It must dip over one eye, and sweep away to show the hair on the other side of the head.

Brims are growing more popular, also, although they admit that turbans are holding a lead position. If you know that your nose is nicer and your eyes are softer when a brim casts an alluring shadow over them, don't feel that you must look at life unprotected. Choose a brim.

There are two felt hats that are excellent for street wear, which, after all, is the place where most hats do their promenading. One of them comes in light colors. The crown is folded, dipping on the left side. A band of brown kid in the same material acts as ornamentation. High-cut brown kid pumps repeat this costume accent. This hat, with its matching shoes, will make a coat dress of crinkly wool doubly interesting.

A black felt hat, which also believes in the brim, uses two rows of narrow grosgrain ribbon as trimming, letting the ends come together in a bow at the back, slightly to the left. This hat does its best work when worn with a black kid pump which is dressed up with a long tongue in kid and a black grosgrain ribbon.

A black felt hat, trimmed in two rows of narrow grosgrain ribbon, such as that shown at left, looks its best when worn with the black kid pump with long kid tongue and a black grosgrain ribbon bow. With the light hat with small motif of brown kid, shown at right, high-cut brown kid pumps are the choice.

Helen Hickman Is New Nurse At Infirmary

Another step forward has been made in the College this year by securing the services of a Registered Nurse to have charge of the infirmary and to assist in maintaining health standards.

Miss Helen Hickman, whose work at Nacogdoches has received much favorable comment, is the new nurse. She arrived in Canyon last Thursday and since that time has been planning her work for the year and becoming acquainted with the town and college situation.

Health education courses have also been added to the department of physical education, headed by Miss Ruth Cross who spent last year in New York doing advanced study in this field.

The health service of the college is open to all students. Included in this service is advice from the nurse, treatment of minor illnesses or injuries, and temporary treatment of more severe cases.

LOCAL NEWS

Arless Atkins of Amarillo, who has been visiting in the home of her grandmother, Mrs. R. W. Ratcliff, the past two weeks, returned to her home Saturday.

Judge I. R. Kelso of St. Louis, president of the Texas Utilities Company made a brief visit in Canyon at the local office Wednesday morning.

Clyde W. Warwick returned this morning from Austin where he has been attending the special called session of the 42nd Legislature.

W. D. Pike made a business trip to Lubbock Saturday.

John Jackson was a business visitor in Plainview Monday.

Ralph Short, who has been in Canyon this summer associated with the construction work on the highway, left this week to join the Simmons University Cowboy Band on their tour to Boston and New York.

Miss Mary Lee Cooper visited last week in the home of her brother, John Cooper in McLean.

Thieves Knock Knob From Safe Friday Night

Burglars forced an entrance into the City Pharmacy Friday night, knocked the knob from the safe and made away with considerable cash and several hundred dollars worth of diamonds and other jewelry.

Entrance was gained by breaking a glass in a back door of the building. The safe had been thoroughly ransacked, and the work done in a manner which indicated the thieves were professionals.

Local officers are working on the case but have announced the finding of no substantial clues to date.

STORK SPECIAL.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Ferguson, Saturday, September 10, a son, Harvey Robert.

MISS MEYER WINS

Miss Adelheid Meyer of Canyon won two first places in the domestic science division at the Tri-State Fair in Amarillo this week.

Her entry of crocheted bath towels, collection of three, won a blue ribbon, and a sheet, in the same division, was awarded first place.

Oxygen is the most abundant of all the elements on the earth's surface for in addition to its free occurrence in the air it forms, in combination eight ninths by weight of water, and nearly one-half by weight of the rocks covering the earth's crust, being an ingredient of silica, the silicates, the carbonates, the sulphates, etc.

Uncle Jim Elan, octogenarian of Agnes, Texas, recently attended his own funeral. He was the most interested listener to the funeral oration delivered by his Baptist pastor. He expects to live to be 100, but wanted to hear any nice things which might be said after his demise, and to smell any flowers that might be brought to his funeral.

PRINTING

Not always is the question of low price the impelling motive for the wise buyer when he places his order for printing.

He wants to konw that his Printing is being done by responsible parties, who are ready to back up the products of their plant—the same as he expects his grocer to back up the quality of the foods he buys.

The wise buyer wishes to buy his printing from the firm which is doing its part in upholding the standards of his community—who is investing his money to make the community a better place in which to live.

The wise buyer knows that every dollar he sends away from his community is gone forever so far as the upbuilding of home industry is concerned; that the home laborer loses just so much wages which he may spend with home merchants; the home plant is defeated in building a bigger and better plant, which in turn will pay more taxes and more insurance to local concerns.

Canyon is fortunate in having the BEST printing plant of any town the size of Canyon in the entire Southwest. It was built through the confidence in the people of Canyon, and for the people of Canyon, and for the benefit of the people of Canyon.

When you buy printing, invest in your own home printing plant.

Prices are always the lowest, quality and service considered.

Schools of Today Cost Little For The Individual

How inexpensive good schools are! It is one of the tricks of the retrenchment propagandists to set forth increases in school costs without taking into account the large expansion in other phases of our life. School costs have increased remarkably, but not so rapidly as have the demands which the public has made upon the schools. The standard of living has gone up and education is an essential element of that standard. How inexpensive schools are! According to Bureau of Information figures the total expenditure per capita of population for education was only $16.25 in 1924; $17.15 in 1925; and $17.50 in 1926. Divide $17.50 by 365 and the quotient is less than five cents a day per capita for the cost of education for the nation's children—the most important single activity of organized society.

The United States is saving about fifteen per cent of its income. Certainly a nation which can show such a record need have no fears over the expenditure of 2.68 per cent of its income for education. The health, skill, and purpose of the people constitute the wealth of the nation. To deny youth the adjustment which schools can give is virtually to deny life itself and to destroy the security of this basic human wealth.

Efficiency counts. We need not delude ourselves into thinking that the nation can afford to do less than its best by all its youth. People move about easily and depend much upon each other. We are one in the end and our children will be more intimately dependent upon the intelligence and good spirit of their fellows than we are today. The slow and sure process of education is the only way out. Our people have started upon that way and they dare not turn back, for it is the way of freedom and achievement. All that we put into the schools comes back many fold. We put a dollar into education and gather from our commerce; we build technical schools and found new industries; we draw four million of our young people into high schools and lay the foundation for a new civilization. We cannot afford to starve education — fundamental alike to individual success and national security. Let us rather insist that money wisely spent for good schools is an intelligent investment which every community should make according to its resources, its needs, and its ambitions for its children.

Team A and B Play Practice Game Friday

The training field of the Canyon Eagles will be the scene of a football game between the "A" and "B" teams next Friday afternoon. Owing to the fact that the "A" and "B" teams are closely matched this will evidently be a good game. It will help determine who will start the game against Vega Oct. 1st; it will show Coach Barksdale how some of the inexperienced men will show up in a regulation game. Vega, it is rumored, has one of the strongest teams in the district.

Cartoons Are Prominent In Campaign Program

The Tory and Whig parties agreed on at least one thing. On Thursday, they each had five cartoons. The Tories, however certainly won on size. Their "Downfall of Whigs" and "Vote for Cox" cover a good half of the bulletin board. The Whigs should have a point on their "Brasuel for President" sign. The Tories, though, were not long in covering that glory with a "Cox for President" sign of equal size, although it was somewhat transparent.

The presidential campaign has unearthed several cartoonists of ability. Dorothy Wright, who was responsible for the "Vote for Cox" sign; Zudie Mae Bible, who drew the sketches, and Arthur Lee Chambers were official cartoonists for the Tory party.

Mary Beth Campbell and Athalee Overton, co-artists of the cartoon showing the rocket like rise of the Whigs, compared to the descent of the Tories, and Thurman Cook, who advises the public to smash the Tories, served the Whig party.

Like the rest of the campaigning they were drawn and received in a friendly sportsman-like way. These cartoons have played no small part in the campaign and probably had some bearing on the election of our Student Council President.

Doesn't it fill you with pride when you recall that, on July 4, many years ago, America fought for, and secured her independence because of excess taxation?

Never take too seriously the boast of the man who says he has a mind of his own, because the odds are he hasn't.

The road to success is a hard one to travel, but we'll get there just the same if we keep right on stumbling along.

The estimated value of the human body is 67c. In the case of some congressmen, the additional ivory would make that figure a bit higher.

Leonard Brasuel Elected President of Association

Leonard Brasuel led Tyson Cox by six votes in Friday's election for Student Association President. The polls on the second floor of the high school building were crowded during the hours from 12 to 1, and 4:00 to 4:45, the hours the polls were open. One hundred and ninety-four votes were cast, out of approximately two hundred and twenty-five eligible voters of Canyon High School.

On Thursday before the election on Friday a political rally was held in the auditorium. It was attended by the Whig and Tory political parties. Mr. Carruth, acting as chairman, introduced the Whig manager, Wesley Williams, who made a brief speech and in turn introduced Leonard Brasuel, the Whig nominee for the presidency. Leonard read the platform of the Whig party and asked the student body to support him in his race. This was followed by a brief speech by Rosa Cash, the Whig assistant manager. The Tory manager, Dan Gerald was the next speaker. In his speech he asked the student body to support Tyson Cox, the Tory nominee. Robbie Lee Foster, the assistant Tory manager, introduced Tyson Cox, who read the platform of the Tory party and made a very inspiring talk to the student body in the interest of his candidacy. Bobbie Jo Cheney, a speaker for the Tories, made the rebuttal for the said party. Robert Black, the Whig's last, and the rallies last speaker made a speech which is believed to have been the guiding mark in the election of Leonard for student president.

In Mr. Black's speech he said: "It is not the demerits of the Tory party that we are running on, it is the merits of the Whig party." The rally was concluded with a few words by Mr. Carruth.

The Eighth grade of the Canyon High School had a class meeting at twelve-thirty o'clock Friday. The meeting was held in room thirteen of the high school building, under the supervision of Miss Foster, the eighth grade sponsor. The class meeting was held for the purpose of electing class officers. Sewell Cox was elected president; Mary McCaslin, vice-president; Ruby Guthrie, secretary and treasurer.

Those visiting in Amarillo were: Sarah Bonnie Bourn, Mary Lee West, and Chloie Hail.

Col. Jim Cook Tells of Early Pioneer Days

An old pioneer, cowboy, rancher, buffalo hunter, and Indian fighter, Captain Jim Cook, spoke to the high school assembly Monday, concerning his experiences on the plains.

He stated in his talk that he was born in 1858 on Llano Creek, Texas. When a small child, Mr. Cook was left an orphan, and at the age of twelve was captured by the Indians. While living with the Indians, he married at the age of fourteen, the daughter of the chief. In a few years, they escaped from the tribe, returning to his home on Llano Creek.

After returning home, he lead the United States calvary in their drive against the Indians on the plains country. After this time he lead the buffalo hunters into the tremendous herds of buffalo.

This strong frontier scout is now making his home in Utah, but he is now touring the Plains, telling of earlier conditions. He has made talks to assemblies at Waco, Dallas, Galvert and at the Southern Methodist University.

The students of Canyon High School are unusually proud of the lawns and trees in front of the buildings. They have been well-watered and mowed during the summer vacation. The shade of the trees is inviting and pep meetings have been held on the sidewalk under the trees lately.

Gladys McBride visited Marguerite Johnson, a former resident of Canyon, in Albuquerque.

Miss McClanahan was in Weatherford, Texas.

Florine and Gertrude Meador were in their home in Umbarger.

Miss Foster and Miss Clark spent the week end in Hale Center.

If Garner is elected vice president, he'll have a chance to learn what Roosevelt meant by "the forgotten man."

Purple Peps Show Great Interest In Organization

The Pep Squad met for their first time September 13, in the auditorium. The president, Margery Tankersley, took charge. A yells committee, Rosa Cash, Athalee Overton, Mary Beth Campbell, and Trannie Mae Russell, was appointed. A fund committee including Myrtis Wright, Gailen Porter, Zudie Mae Bible, Eulalie Moore, and Maxine Middleton, was also appointed.

The constitution committee, Louise Wester, Leona Hardman, Lena Wade Jennings agreed upon four requirements: first, that every member own a pep suit; second, that all girls attend at least two-thirds of the home games; third, that the members pass at least three of their subjects; and last, that the Pep Squad meetings are attended as regularly as possible.

A new song has been adopted and will eventually be recognized as school song. The words are as follows:

"Our hearts are filled with gladness
And pride in Canyon High;
We'll play the game the livelong day
Dishonor ne'er draws nigh.
We'll spend our lives in serving,
For she has taught us how,
And here's our pledge, we'll give our best
For Canyon High School now."

The Second Year Home Economics class met for a regular laboratory period last Friday morning at the ten o'clock hour. The students are divided into partners, each pair of girls to a desk. Marmalade, conserve and jelly were made. All of these turned out to be a success. The pupils are comparing the expenses of bought jams and jellies to that of home-made. All of the girls have found the work to be both enjoyable and profitable.

Mary McCaslin entertained a number of girls at her home Friday night with a slumber party. Outdoor games were played until a late hour, when gingerbread and watermelon were served. Those enjoying the party were: Sarah Bonnie Bourn, Mary Ella Lowe, Lavina Watkins, Lorna Cone, Virginia Murray and the hostess, Mary McCaslin.

Rubye and Robbie Lee Foster visited in Chillicothe, Texas, over the week end.

C. H. S. Faculty Entertained With Forty-Two Party

The faculty entertained about forty-five seniors of Canyon High School Friday night with a progressive 42 party. The tables were arranged in a circle around the grade school gymnasium. While the senior boys and girls were ingrossed in gaining victories over their classmates in the contest, the radio, which was presented to the school by the senior class of '31-'32, furnished music.

When Mr. Carruth, Miss Brasuel, and Mr. Barksdale interrupted this contest by bringing in delicious refreshments of brick ice cream and angel food cake, Lela Hickox, Adelyne Groom, Wilma Harris and Ray Long were at head table. When the party was over at a late hour, the sentiment of the crowd was that it was the best party ever given in Canyon High School.

School Dismissed For Tri-State Fair in Amarillo

Canyon High School was well represented at the Fair on Canyon day, when they received a holiday. The students were attracted to many of the side shows and other such attractions. Much interest was shown toward the exhibits, especially the agricultural exhibit from Canyon.

POLICY OF EAGLES TALE.

The purpose of The Eagles Tale is two-fold: first, to give news, and second to aid the students in every way possible. It wishes to co-operate with the student body and with the faculty in giving to the students and public the news of the Canyon High School. Every student who wishes to lend his talent to the publishing of this paper is encouraged to do so.

It is the desire of The Eagles Tale to treat fairly and equally the four classes of the school, namely, senior, junior, sophomore, and freshmen. With the aid of these students and the faculty, this paper can give to its public those events of the high school which will interest them.

There are students who are interested in journalism and those who wish to make this their life work. These students are given the opportunity of working with this newspaper and may contribute any bit of news they choose. In this way the paper aids many of the students.

IN THE WORLD OF SPORTS

The 1932 World Series, if Nothing Else, Should Be a Great Financial Success, With the Stars and the Great Fan Support of the Yanks and Cubs

BY PHILIP MARTIN

FLAUNTING the pennants of both leagues in the face of Old Man Depression, the 1932 world series between the Yanks and Cubs, which gets under way Sept. 28, bids fair to surpass the attendance records and gate receipts of those of yesteryear

For in addition to having the two best teams of each league, displaying such stars as Babe Ruth, Lefty Gomez, Charley Grimm, Lon Warneke and Lou Gehrig, the series this year will be played in two of the largest cities in the country—New York and Chicago.

Nearly one-tenth of the population of the country resides within hailing distance of these two cities, and record crowds should fill the stands every day to see one of the greatest array of stars presented in a series for many a year.

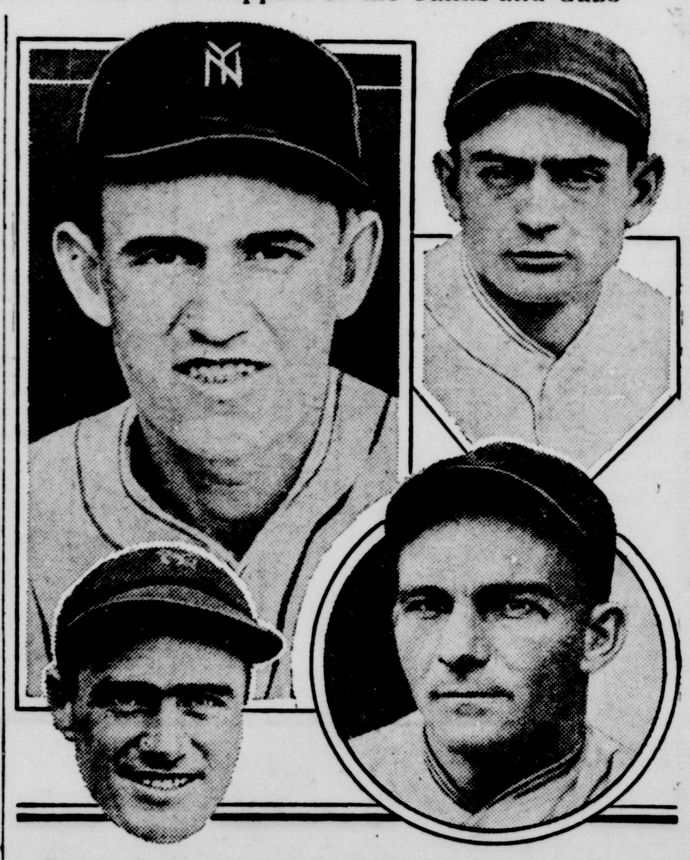
* * *

A COMPARISON between last year's attendance figures and those of 1930 show definitely that good times are up and coming as far as baseball is concerned. Last year's attendance was 231,567, and the receipts were $1,030,723. The previous year's attendance was 212,619 persons, who paid $953,772 to see the show.

As for predicting the winner of the series, dear old Philip, your demon correspondent, picks the Yanks. Perhaps this will bring forth storms of dissent, but everyone's entitled to his own opinion.

Take a look at the pitching. The Yanks have five of their flingers ranking among the first 10 hurlers in the American League, with Gomez and Allen topping the heap. Ruffing, Pipgras and Pennock follow in line. With such a line-up of pitchers stopping the booming bats of the American League sluggers to put the Yanks way out in front of the pack at the end of the year, the Cubs are going to find the going tough.

The Cubs have only three hurlers who rank among the first 10 in the old circuit. One of these, Lyle Tinning, has only taken part in a few games. The other two are Warneke, the new sensation of the league, and the old reliable Guy Bush.



Vernon (Lefty) Gomez of the Yanks, and the old reliable Guy Bush of the Cubs, above left to right, are two hurlers who will fill important roles in the 1932 world series; and the fans are expecting to see some tall batting on the part of Fielders Earl Combs of the Yanks, and Riggs Stephenson of the Cubs, left to right, below.

AS for sluggers, we'll take the Yanks, too. The outfield has only one man hitting under .300, and the mighty old Babe is leading the outfielders of the league with a mark hovering around .350. The Cub outfielder who can approach that mark is "Old Hoss" Stephenson.

The infields of either team are pretty evenly matched when it comes to hitting, but the Cubs have no one in the inner garden who can slug with Lou Gehrig.

The hitting behind the bat again finds the Yanks out in front, with Dickey hitting around .302, as against about .260 for Hartnett.

In fielding the average tables give Chicago the edge, ranking the Cubs second in the National League and New York fifth in the American.

On paper, it looks like the Yanks, but you never can tell about a world series.

News in Canyon 25 Years Ago

(From the files of the Canyon City News, September 13, 1907.

A. M. Smith has a petition signed by a majority of the property holders along the south side of West Evelyn street, asking the City Council for an ordinance requiring cement sidewalks from the public square to the school building. In this connection the city will also be asked for street crossings and for a gravel center, twelve feet or more wide, on the street.

Monday night Amarillo, in mass meeting assembled, raised the balance of the money necessary to secure the Santa Fe branch line from Panhandle, also a division point, temporarily.

Joe Service is putting up the power house for the light and ice plant. Hauter is drilling the water supply well and the poles are strung out all over town.

An iron signal post, operated from the inside, now adorns the Canyon City depot.

John Guthrie has bought from John A. Wallace the residence recently vacated by Mr. Gary.

Miss Minnie Lashly of Fort Worth, arrived here Friday, becoming the geust of her friend, Miss Addie Money.

W. W. Stephenson has purchased the Bob Stratton residence on West Evelyn, paying $1050. He has had it moved some and is now at home there.

The Fort Worth Record, by a special from Austin, informs its readers that the Santa Fe has recently secured a charter for a branch line from Panhandle to Amarillo. The Daily Panhandle says that work is to begin on this line at once. As Canyon City is to have the main trunk line of this great system it can well afford to congratulate Amarillo on getting this branch line.

New York's Missing Persons Bureau Finds 99 Out of Every 100 Runaways

ECONOMIC CONDITIONS ARE LARGELY RESPONSIBLE FOR THE DISAPPEARANCE OF MEN
HOME CONDITIONS, TOO RIGID DISCIPLINE, STAGE AND SCREEN AMBITIONS, ARE REASONS "WHY GIRLS LEAVE HOME".

Here is Captain John H. Ayres, head of the Missing Persons Bureau of New York City, who does not believe that the bureau's success in locating 99 per cent of the city's runaways is anything extraordinary.

IN New York City, a Mecca which attracts and swallows many "missing persons" annually, a little organization of less than 50 persons locates 99 out of every 100 of these wanderers, most of whom are returned to their homes.

To Captain John H. Ayres, head of the Missing Persons Bureau of Manhattan, this almost perfect score of successful cases in a city of teeming millions is nothing remarkable. A great many of the "nomads," he explains, return in a short time, voluntarily. A checkup of police stations, hospitals and morgues locates others, who have met with arrest or accident. A great many, however, are deliberate runaways. These, the captain says, are the hardest to find.

Where the action has been deliberate, Captain Ayres or one of his assistants must obtain a complete picture of the missing one. In addition to his description, they must learn of his habits, his hobbies, and his ambitions. They must study his parents and home surroundings, and make inquiries at his place of work. Clews uncovered in these thorough advance investigations have often led to the finding of the wanderer.

One instance Captain Ayres relates deals with a stenographer who had deserted her position and family. A checkup at her home revealed that her parents had repeatedly discouraged her ambition to be a governess. This detail led to discovery of the girl in a wealthy residential district, where she was happy in a position as governess to a small child. Missing girls found to have been stage or movie struck have been found after a round robin to the city's casting bureaus. Many times the favorite fiction of the runaway gives the bureau a definite hint as to his destination. Thus, on Canada-bound trains have often been found boys who, the bureau had been informed, were avid readers of Royal Northwest Mounted Police novels.

• • •

THE efforts of Captain Ayres and his co-workers do not end with the restoration of the prodigal to his folks. If they did, his staff must soon assume the aspects of a small army, because the same people would be disappearing again and again. As important as finding the truant is adjusting the conditions which made him want to run away. Perhaps it may involve advising a mother not to "baby" her son to death, or a father not to be too stern. Or parents may be warned not to deny their daughters the companionship of boys. While the work involved in making these adjustments is considerable, Captain Ayres is well repaid in the knowledge that the case won't come bouncing back at him in the near future.

The motives which cause a person to disappear vary with his sex and age. With girls, unpleasant home conditions and too rigid discipline are dominating reasons, with screen and stage ambitions, and love entanglements, tied for second place. With older women, it is usually the desire for economic improvement.

An adventurous nature, or a disinclination to be a drain on the family purse, may motivate boys. Unemployment, resulting from the depression, is responsible for the epidemic of missing men in recent times. It is interesting to note that while economic conditions have prompted many men to break the traces, the same conditions have brought about a decrease in the number of missing girls. The scarcity of jobs available for women nowadays has kept in the shelter of home many girls who otherwise would have sought the open road.

We Are Proud of Our Exhibitors At the Tri-State Fair

Our Home Demonstration Clubs had their first exhibit this year and won several prizes.

We congratulate not only these exhibitors, but also those who contributed to the agricultural display there.

The future of Randall County is largely dependent on its agricultural development, and these winnings should be appreciated as important contributions to that development.

When you need lumber and building materials for the improvement of your farms, let us supply you.

The New Royal Signet

$5,000 Opportunity Awards

September 12—October 31

163 Cash Prizes

HERE ARE THE CONDITIONS:

1. Visit The News office and enroll in the Royal Signet "Opportunity Awards."

2. Try the New Royal Signet. Type a few lines. Observe its simplicity of operation. Study the beauty and clear legibility of Royal's new, attractive Mono-face type.

3. At home, later, fill out the enrollment blank, stating in 25 words (a) "Why I like the New Royal Signet" and (b) "Why I feel it will change the writing habits of the world." Write your opinion in pen and ink, or on a typewriter. Make it clear and concise as possible. Remember—25 words on each subject, 50 in all, no more!

4. Return your entry to The Warwick Printing Co., obtain a receipt—prior to midnight October 31, 1932.

5. In all cases of tie, duplicate amounts will be awarded.

6. Announcement of winners on or before December 15.

7. Everyone eligible, although the "opportunity awards" competition is of especial interest to school and college students of all ages.

FACTS ABOUT THE NEW ROYAL SIGNET

The New Royal Signet is a real typewriter—built for steady year-after-year use. Graceful, flowing lines, beautifully finished in green velvetone. All bright work heavily plated. Actually looks and performs as if it sold at twice the price!

As you try the New Royal Signet you remark, "How wonderful! It's so simple and easy to use!" You wonder why. Then you notice that the shift-key is gone. Royal's exclusive new mono-face type has eliminated it! At one stroke Royal has made typing handier than handwriting. The New Royal Signet operates speedily and smoothly. With the steadiness of office typewriter, and the price, $29.50, is a sensation—a real revolution in typewriter values! Case $2.50.

Vega to Meet Eagles Here Night Of October First

Football fans will see their first night high school game to be played on the Plains Saturday night, October 1, when the Vega eleven will match forces with the Canyon Eagles under the powerful flood lights of the Buffalo Stadium on the home grounds. The Vega team is reported to be among the best in this district, but Coach Barksdale states that his men are also in fine shape, and a spirited encounter is expected.

Much interest has been exhibited this year by the business people and parents of the students, and it is expected that the stands will be filled, not only with local people but with outside fans who will be on hand to witness this opening game.

Ticket Sale Good

The campaign for season tickets to the high school football games which was started this week by Canyon High School students was reported to be getting a good response. Those purchasing the season tickets will be entitled to see all the home tilts at an average price of 30 cents a game. This represents quite a saving as heretofore single admission price to the games were regularly 75c and $1.00. Many town people as well as students are availing themselves of the opportunity. The season ticket sells for $1.25.

The home schedule for this season provides for games against Happy, Vega, Silverton, and Hereford, with those against Happy and Hereford expected to be the toughest. The Happy team, which is conceded to be the strongest team in the district this year, plays here on Oct. 28, and the annual "grudge game" with Hereford will be staged on the home field Nov. 4.

Stockholders

Broome and Dr. George Vineyard of Amarillo, Byron Dickson of Lubbock, and Herbert S. Hillburn of Plainview constitute the executive committee of the association.

Praises Local Company

All present at the meeting were unanimous in complimenting employees of the local subsidiaries of the power corporation. Mr. Howe explained that they only obeyed orders, and that they believe in the stock is shown by the fact that they have invested much in it themselves. He also paid a high tribute to Judge Kelso, who organized the companies years ago. Mr. Howe said that there was a difference between the "operators" and the "promoters" of the company and that the operators had not known what was going on.

Central Committee

Two members of the central committe were chosen from each city and community where the stock was sold. They were directed to hold meetings in their respective communities and to enroll as members in the organization all persons who had bought stock. Representing Canyon on this central committee are J. J. Walker and Clyde W. Warwick.

Canyon Membership

Those who enrolled personally or by proxy as members of the Protective League from Canyon were: Mrs. G. R. Reid, Mr. and Mrs. Wagy, Lillian Atkins, Sarah Ann Brocks, C. M. Dowlen, E. L. Prichard, George Gammon, J. J. Walker, J. W. Kleinschmidt, W. D. Pike, Clyde W. Warwick, L. L. Monroe, and L. C. Johnson.

Institute

ley has conducted similar institutes in the larger cities of the South and west and has gained an enviable reputation as an analyst of business conditions in this part of the nation.

Commenting by letter on the course which is to be presented here, R. L. Thornton, President of the Mercantile Bank and Trust Company of Texas, and Chairman of the Trade Extension Committee of the Dallas Chamber of Commerce, has explained how it is possible for the Dallas Wholesale Market to offer such a comprehensive service without cost to the local merchants.

"We realize Dallas, as a manufacturing and jobbing center, can grow only in proportion to its trade territory," said Mr. Thornton. "It is a real service to the merchants of the Southwest and a pleasure to Dallas business interests to present this institute. Therefore, we make available the services of Mr. Stanley in the belief that his knowledge of retail merchandising will be invaluable to your merchants and that the Dallas Market is presenting a service that will win it many friends.

"Mr. Stanley's services will be available as time permits in every section of the five states that find in Dallas a complete wholesale market. Within recent years the growth and development of the Dallas Market has been phenomenal. Thousands of buyers throughout this territory now know they may purchase merchandise particularly adopted to the Southwest on a basis of price competitive with that of any other market and with the assurance of over-night delivery. In millinery and ready-to-wear lines, Dallas has become not only a Southwestern but a national market.

"Within recent years the semi-annual style show presentation during the spring and fall market season have become an institution and the thousands of buyers who attend these events know they will gain authoritative information on style-right merchandise."

The Chamber of Commerce cordially invites merchants, business men, and salespeople of this city to attend Mr. Stanley's institute without any charge or obligation.

ARMSTRONG HERE.

Judge Geo. W. Armstrong of Ft. Worth, candidate for governor on the Independent ticket, passed through Canyon Monday, leaving copies of his platform for distribution.

Judge Armstrong did not have time to speak here as he was scheduled to appear at Plainview at 11 o'clock. He spoke at Lubbock at 2:30, Slaton at 4:30 and Snyder at 8 o'clock Monday evening. His speaking program is full as he is trying to reach places he was not able to reach on his former tours.

Friday is one of the seven days on which diving into shallow water is said to be dangerous.

AMMUNITION FOR THE HEAVY ARTILLERY

Palo Duro Ass'n Honors Rev. Hicks With Resolutions

Rev. J. R. Hicks, who came to Canyon early this month from Panhandle to be the pastor of the First Baptist Church of this city was highly complimented by the Palo Duro Association who adopted the following resolutions on Sept. 6, honoring him:

Resolutions

Whereas Bro. J. R. Hicks has been a faithful worker in this Association during the past four years and is now accepting the pastorate of the Canyon Baptist Church in the Tierra Blanca Association;

Be it resolved, that we express our sincere appreciation for his unfailing interest in all phases of the Kingdom work while among us. His unselfish and enthusiastic service has been a blessing to us all.

As he goes to a new field we wish him Godspeed, praying and expecting that he will find the same loyal friends in his new field that he leaves here. Canyon and the Tierra Blanca Association has gained the services of a real leader.

May God's blessing be on him and the good people he goes to serve.

Signed
BEN SHORT
J. E. NUNN.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon S. See and little son, Stephen, who have been visiting in the parental B. F. Oatis home, returned Friday to their home in Tulsa, Okla.

CANYON CITY CLUB NEWS

The second of a series of five Handicap Tournaments, was held at the club last Sunday, with only seventeen entries; Reeves placed first with a net 67 followed by Craig and Hicks with 70s; Brown and Ferrell carded 71s; Walsh, Bryant and Gamewell turned in 74s and Duflot a 75; Terrill delivered a 78; Mickle an 80; Hartman and Neff 82s; Shotwell an 83; Roscoe Davis and Dan Sanders carded 87s.

The third contest will be held at the club next Sunday at 1:30 p. m. It is hoped by the committee, that all members will be on hand and take part, and that as nearly as possible, all contestants will have an equal chance to winning first place.

A driving contest will be held from No. 3 tee at 1:15 o'clock Sunday; a prize will go to the winner of this contest; a player is to hit three balls from the tee and the combined distance determines the winner, only balls stopping on the fairway will be counted in the combined total. There will also be a prize given to the player making the fewest number of putts during the day's match; in the event there is a tie in this event, contestants will determine the winner by putting the tie off on number two green immediately after the match. There is no entrance fee for the above contests and all members are eligible to participate. Jimmie Gamewell, Pro, at the College Course is donating the prizes for these events and will not participate in them; Jimmie is known all over the Panhandle as one of the longest drivers and probably as deadly a putter on sand greens as can be found anywhere.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Foster were called to Dalhart Friday night to the bedside of Mrs. Brewer's father, Bert Brewer, who underwent an operation for appendicitis. Mr. Brewer is reported as doing nicely late Tuesday night.

Rusk Quizzes

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Johnson of Plainview spent the past week end with Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Sykes and family.

Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Smith visited John Royal Saturday evening. Mr. Royal was seriously injured Tuesday and he was rushed to a hospital where fourteen stitches were required to sew up the cut which he received. It is reported that he is up and able to walk with the assistance of crutches.

Miss Inez Padgett spent Saturday night with Miss Bertha Sykes.

Mrs. Henry Parmer and daughter, Merle, and Mrs. Lonie Morgan and son Billy of Quail, Texas, visited in the A. O. Smith home Friday afternoon.

Several people of this community enjoyed a watermelon feast given at Mrs. Henry Ratjen's Saturday night.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank the people of Canyon, and especially the Fire Boys for their quick response to our call for help. We wish, also, to thank our good neighbors who were so lovely to us in our need following the fire which destroyed our home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Robbins.

A. M. Smith Is First Shareholder In Randall County

A. M. Smith, Democratic County Chairman of Randall County, announced today that James Farley, Chairman of the Democratic National Committee, in conjunction with the Executive Committee has designated him as the first member in Randall County of "Shareholders in America," a movement designed to elect Franklin D. Roosevelt and John N. Garner. Mr. Smith said he received today his membership and official Roosevelt-Garner Medallion, which is the official insignia of Shareholders in America.

The medallion is a real work of art, bearing a profile of Governor Roosevelt and Speaker Garner. It was created by Gutzen Borglum. Mr. Smith said that he expected to be a sponsor of Shareholders in America in Randall County, and give every supporter of Franklin D. Roosevelt an opportunity to procure one of these medallions. He said anyone would be proud to display it and would further want to preserve it as a souvenir of the campaign.

"This plan for raising funds, said Mr. Smith, "is in keeping with Franklin Roosevelt's idea of making this the Peoples' Campaign." The medallion sells for $1.00. Any person desiring a medallion can communicate with Mr. Smith at 1906 7th avenue, phone 245, or at the First National Bank of Canyon. Mr. Smith is seeking volunteers to cooperate in this campaign. Anyone who is willing to help the cause of Franklin Roosevelt can communicate with him at County Headquarters.

Franklin Roosevelt became the first Shareholder in America, Sunday afternoon, at his home in Hyde Park.
